Gordian III Bronze Sestertius Choice Extremely Fine –

We were offered a small deal of about ten of these gorgeous Bronze Roman coins depicting emperor Gordian III from around 240 B.C. and didn't hesitate to buy them all. For the price, they are some of the best values in our inventory. They are large, round, beautiful coins with a gorgeous overall patina and fantastic eye appeal. Available for $329 each.

1855 Chilean 50 c. PCGS Gold Foil SSCA – As many already know, the effects of saltwater on silver (and most metals) is destructive. It's hard to believe that this exact coin sank to the bottom of the ocean on board the SS Central America and upon recovery and conservation, the details on this 1855 Chilean 50 Cent piece are really spectacular. Only one available, coin shown is the exact coin you will receive. Only $472

Antiochus VII Silver Tetradrachm NGC Choice About Uncirculated –

Struck nearly 2,200 years ago, these large and intricate silver tetradrachms struck by Antiochus VII have remarkable detail and history. Besides the obvious historic importance, they're hand-struck in high-relief and no two coins are exactly alike. They are excellent examples of Hellenistic art. Only $895.

1882-CC Morgan Dollar PCGS Mint State 65 DMPL –

Here's a flashy, highly mirrored Carson City Silver Dollar that blasts out of its PCGS holder! Its frosty devices and highly mirrored fields are accurately notated by PCGS as prooflike and the overall Mint State 65 grade makes this a solid coin for the money. Prooflike CC's are desirable and always quick to sell. You can also check for different dates or higher grades. Available for $1,975.

Mysia Cyzicus Electrum Full Stater NGC Very Fine 4x4

–Dating back around 2,500 years, this impressive and hefty full stater is struck from electrum--a mixture of gold and silver. The obverse is one that we have yet to encounter--the full image of Ketos--a sea monster from ancient lore. Interesting incuse punch on the back and truly a great coin for the money.

Special Price of $9,575.

Tiberius Gold Aureus Liva as Pax NGC About

Uncirculated 5x3 – Tiberius ruled the Roman Empire from 14-37 AD, during the life and death of Jesus Christ. Coins bearing his likeness are very desirable, particularly when in such a fine state of preservation. This coin is well centered and struck with originality and lots of eye appeal. Great coin for the money and a classic rarity from ancient Rome.

Special Price of $10,243.

Ptolemy II Gold Octodrachm Choice Very Fine 5x3

Ancient Egypt was known to be a country of remarkable wealth and prosperity and it is evident in their gold Octodrachms struck around 2,300 years ago. The Gold Octodrachm is the biggest gold coin ever struck in ancient times. Each coin contains just under an ounce of pure gold, which represented an enormous amount of wealth back then, and today too! This particular example has been graded by NGC Ancients to be in a Choice Very Fine condition, making it somewhat affordable to collectors. Available for $19,750.
